(OMAHA, Neb.) Nov. 10, 2016 – For the 11th consecutive year, Wells Fargo will present Omaha-area families with the opportunity to experience an afternoon of fun—for free—at a variety of Omaha's leading downtown attractions. This year's Family Festival will be held Sunday, Dec. 4, from noon to 5 p.m. Families can park at any of the six participating venues to access a free trolley service provided by Ollie the Trolley that connects the sites. All offer free admission and family activities.

Families are encouraged to “Shine the Light on Hunger” and donate non-perishable foods and household goods to be distributed to families in need through Food Bank for the Heartland.

“Wells Fargo is pleased to serve as the Family Festival sponsor and continue what has become an important tradition for both us and the community,” said Kirk Kellner, region president for Wells Fargo in Nebraska. “The Wells Fargo team has enjoyed watching the event grow in the last decade, and we love seeing how much fun parents and children have at the community's best family-friendly venues.”
